

Edison Volleyball Egg Roll Fundraiser

Egg rolls are well known as a delicious appetizer, but in many Hmong families, they're much more than just appetizers. It's more like a main dish for us. Egg rolls would be served with white rice, and then maybe some sauce or pepper on the side.

Inside a crisp shell are a mix of rice noodles, shredded cabbage, cilantro, carrots, and shallots. A touch of ginger, salt, and pepper add to your meat or meatless options to treat your taste buds.
